AGENCY-BASED PRINCIPLES OF GOOD PRACTICE: EVALUATION CHECKLIST

The checklist on the next few pages presents the specific criteria, in line with the core principles of the AACPI that are associated with the agency-based approach to counselling and service delivery.

The AACPI approach recognises the key role that all levels of the organisation play in the maintenance of best practice and in the provision of services to the community. Best practice requires that participation of the Board of Management, administrators, supervisors, practitioners, office staff and volunteers in creating a climate of care and professional excellence. This checklist identifies the key criteria that define best practice within community agency-based organisations.

Please read through the specific criteria and tick the following options:

'Yes' to indicate that you meet the criteria.

'No' to indicate that you don't meet the criteria.

'N/A' Not applicable, please provide information as to why criteria is not applicable to your organization.

This form will be useful for highlighting any areas for development within your organisation and for the sector in general.

AACPI does not require any documentation to demonstrate that your agency meets the criteria as highlighted by you; it accepts you completed the form with benignancy and AACPI shall not be held responsible for any false information provided. Tick box to acknowledge this statement.
